

WILSON APPEALS TO RAILROAD HEADS

Finds Managers Adamant to His Proposal for an Eight-Hour Day

MEN MAY ACCEPT PLAN

Executive May Appeal to Financial Powers If Railroad Managers are Sustained

CONGRESS MAY INTERVENE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—President Wilson today laid his plan for averting the threatened railway strike before the employees committee of 640 and, having found the managers' committee adamant to his proposal that they accept the 8-hour day, he appealed to the railroad presidents and asked them to come to the white house for a conference. There is every indication that if the railroad presidents sustain their managers President Wilson will appeal finally to the financial powers which control the roads for it is his purpose to deal with the ultimate authority before he gives up his effort.

Proposals of Wilson's Plan. The president's plan which is expected to be formally accepted by the employees' committee at a meeting at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning proposes:

An eight hour day as the basis for computing wages.

Regular pay at the 8-hour day rate for overtime.

To refer all other collateral issues to a small commission to be created by congress on which the employees, the railroads and the public would be represented.

Acceptance of the proposal by the employees was forecast by expressions of their leaders after they left the president's conference.

Railroad presidents began arriving tonight, all are expected to be here tomorrow.

From such information as can be gathered it appears that the railroad presidents, if the managers' committee understands them, are unalterably opposed to conceding the 8-hour day or anything else out of hand, but are quite ready to arbitrate anything and everything.

The railroad presidents, it is understood, justify their stand upon the broad ground of maintaining the principle of arbitration.

If the railroad presidents persist in that view and are supported by the financial powers, only the future can tell the outcome.

Indication of Intervention. With the growing seriousness of the situation, congress began paying more real attention to the crisis today and there were many indications of intervention to prevent a nationwide tieup.

The general expectation is that the railroad officials, after seeing the president tomorrow will ask that they be given time to consider their course. A score of officials who came from New York went into session soon after the arrival with the managers committee and it was said that they considered preparation of a statement to be given out before their visit to the president putting their position before the country.

There was more than one indication that it would take a strong appeal to induce them to reverse the attitude that has been taken by their representatives on the managers' committee.

Asked whether the managers would be backed up in their decision President Daniel E. Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio said: "I assume they will be."

Two Plans Being Considered. Two plans are being considered for the makeup of the proposed commission in case the president's plan is accepted. The first provides for the appointment of all three members, if that should be the size of the commission, by the president, and other for selection of one of the members by him and of the other two by the railroad employers and employees respectively. The plan as presented by the president to the employees did not go into details. It is proposed that the commission be given power to summon witnesses and examine books in order to arrive at the true cost of the proposed plan to the railroads. Suggestions have been made that the commission be made permanent.

The conference between the president and general committee of employees lasted an hour. In a short speech, A. B. Garretson pointed out that the president's position in summoning representatives of a large number of workmen to the white house without others present for a discussion of a labor problem stood unparalleled. In his talk the president explained his feeling that a strike must be averted at any cost.

War News Summarized

No change of importance was reported in any theater of the war Thursday. Six times the Germans advanced in a desperate effort to bend the British lines northwest of Pozieres.

London reports that all of these assaults were repulsed with heavy losses and that the British captured about 100 yards of trenches northwest of Bastine.

Germans so far have made no attempt to deliver a counter attack in the region where the French and British claim to have captured nearly three miles of trenches on Wednesday. The French report no action of importance on any section of their front.

Some mystery exists as to the situation on the eastern front. For two consecutive days the Russians have confined themselves to statements that nothing of importance had occurred. The Austrian and German war offices have been almost equally uncommunicative. The only fighting mentioned by Vienna was the repulse of Russian attacks on the lines of General Von Boehm-Ermolli, who is in command of the Teutonic forces retiring from the Tarnopol front.

Berlin reports the repulse of Russian attacks south of Brody.

The lull in the Italian operations against Trieste is unofficially explained from Rome as due to General Cadorna's desire to straighten his lines before proceeding with a general offensive. Austrian seaplanes have again raided Venice, but Rome says they caused only slight damage.

PERFECT PROCESS TO ELIMINATE HIDDEN FLAWS IN STEEL RAILS

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The New York Central railway announced today the perfection of a process for the elimination of the hidden flaws in steel rails, one of the chief causes of train wrecks. It was declared, the New York Central has reduced rail breaks on its own lines from one break in 600 rails to one in 142,000. The process was developed by the New York Central's staff of scientists under direction of Plimmin H. Dudley. Flaws, or interior fissures, as they are called, are taken from the rails in re-heating plants attached to rail rolling mills. The process it is claimed, is a positive remedy.

Accidents caused by broken rails in 1915 numbered 3,345, killed 205 persons, injured 7,341 and caused a property loss of nearly $4,000,000. Steel manufacturers have been asked to meet with railroad officials in several eastern cities within the next few days to consider the new method.

URGE $130,000,000 FEDERAL BOND ISSUE

SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE DEMOCRATS RECOMMEND ACTION

Report Amount is Necessary to Meet Extraordinary Government Expenses Due to the Mexican Situation—Submit Treasury Department Statement.

Washington, Aug. 17.—A bond issue of $130,000,000 to meet extraordinary government expenses due to the Mexican situation was unexpectedly recommended to congress tonight by majority members of the senate finance committee with the concurrence of the treasury department.

The bond issue is urged in the report of the finance committee Democrats filed in the senate today on the $250,000,000 revenue bill. In addition the finance committee asserts that further appropriation of $86,000,000 will be necessary to defray the expenses of operations in the Mexican emergency if conditions continue as they are now after December 31st 1916. The $130,000,000 to be provided by the proposed bond issue, the report says will meet Mexican expenditures only to the end of this calendar year.

Accompanying the report was the general statement from the treasury department estimating disbursements for the fiscal year 1917 at $1,126,243,000, receipts $762,000,000.

"This increase," says the report, "is represented principally by $167,000,000 additional amount appropriated for the navy, $166,000,000 additional amount appropriated for the army, $20,000,000 additional amount appropriated for fortifications, $41,000,000 for deficiency appropriations—about $35,000,000 of which is due to the Mexican situation and increased requirements of the army and navy—and $20,000,000 for a nitrate plant, which is a preparedness appropriation. The increase in the appropriation for the fiscal year other than for these extraordinary purposes is not beyond normal increase."

"In the opinion of your committee concurred in by the treasury department, this sum, namely $130,000,000 should be financed by a bond issue. This would simply be following not only the custom of this country, but of all other nations under similar circumstances. It is estimated that the bill as amended by your committee will raise $205,000,000 leaving a balance overestimate disbursement of $29,243,000 to be taken from the general fund of the treasury. Your committee is advised by the treasury department that it is safe to estimate that this amount can be taken from the general fund without seriously embarrassing the treasury."

From the rear of his car the nominee made addresses at Riddle, Roseburg, Grant Pass and here. In each he summarized his stand on preparedness and industrial co-operation.

At Riddle, Mr. Hughes declared that a "depreciation in American reputation" due to a policy of "vaclillation" had brought the country nearer to war than if a firm policy had been maintained.

In an address at Grant Pass, Mr. Hughes defined Americanism as follows:

"We must have a good drive ahead; and there is no reason why this country with its ability and natural resources we should not have permanent prosperity. To do that we must look after our own. That is what I mean by dominant Americanism, able to care care of American interests."

"In addition to that we want also an intense regard for our national honor and a disposition to maintain it. I am sollicitous to preserve peace and good will."

"We want the friendship and good will of all the nations of the world. There is no safe guarantee of peace when others begin to see how much they can trifle with you and you decide you won't stand for it. They have got to know you mean what you say and in the things which vitally concern you that you are prepared to maintain them. That is good Americanism. It will give us peace with honor. That is what America wants."

HEALTH OFFICERS PLAN CAMPAIGN

Will Adopt Resolutions Today Outlining Proposals to Check Disease

PLAGUE CAUSE UNKNOWN

Admit Means of Transmission of Infantile Paralysis Not Conclusively Determined

APPOINT TWO COMMITTEES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Plans for a more vigorous campaign to prevent spread of infantile paralysis were made here today at a conference of health authorities of most states with officials of the federal public health service.

Resolutions will be adopted tomorrow by the conference outlining definite proposals for checking dissemination of the disease. While few expressed alarm that the epidemic might become countrywide they uniformly declared measures were necessary to guard against a widespread outbreak. Admission was freely made that the cause of the plague is unknown and that the means of its transmission not conclusively determined.

Uniformity of regulations for travel on railroad trains, steamships and other carriers was urged by Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department. The conference probably will recommend a system of uniform inspection, issuance of health certificates and co-operation between federal and state health and railroad authorities toward safeguarding travel.

A special committee to propose methods for control of the epidemic including telephone regulations was appointed to report tomorrow. Its members are Dr. Johns Fulton of Maryland, chairman, Dr. E. D. Tuttle of Washington state, Dr. E. G. Williams of Virginia; Dr. H. H. Bracken of Minnesota and Surgeon Charles E. Banks, head of the public health service corps fighting the plague at New York. Another committee appointed to recommend a uniform method of collecting and transmitting statistics and information regarding the disease's progress and control is composed of Surgeon C. H. Lavender of the public health service, chairman; Dr. W. C. Woodward of the District of Columbia, Dr. St. Clair Drake of Illinois; Dr. A. G. Young of Maine and Surgeon J. W. Trask of the public health service. A national survey showed 11,717 cases in 38 states reporting, including cases since January 1st. No states except those near New York have imposed embargoes on travelers from the epidemic areas and health officers expressed belief that such drastic quarantine regulations are unnecessary.

Some delegates reported that the plague more prevalent in rural than urban districts. Assistant Surgeon General W. C. Rucker gave out the following synopsis of the views of the speakers:

"It appears to be the consensus of opinion that segregation of persons with the disease is desirable. Travel is dangerous when it permits movement of acute or chronic carriers of the disease. The evidence is against insect transmission and transmission by food is hypothetical."

Reporting on a scientific study of symptoms and control of the epidemic in New York conducted by many state, city and federal scientists, Surgeon Wade Frost of the public health service said:

"Frankly we don't know how the disease is transmitted nor its cause. The evidence strongly points to humans as the carriers. The evidence is that it is purely an human disease and if contagious a large proportion of persons exposed are immune. It must be spread very largely by adults. Against that is the known seasonal prevalence. Our theories do not exclude transmission by insects. Transmission by the lower animals is hypothetical. We hardly suspect any but dogs or cats. Its rapid spread indicates human carriers."

Surgeon Frost said ninety percent of the cases occur among children under 10 years of age and that 75 to 80 percent of infections can be traced to previous cases of direct contact. There are few infections of persons exposed in their own families he stated.

Dr. George Draper of the New York health board said quarantine of paralyzed persons was not effective against transmission. He said milk possibly was a source of infection and that while at first negroes were believed immune cases lately had appeared among that race.

The conference adopted a resolution

Car Shortage Sure

The Railway Age in an editorial this week quotes figures to show that a freight car shortage is imminent and almost certain for the fall months. The figures show that when on the first of August a surplus of 100,000 cars has not been shown, that during the months of October, November and some succeeding months shippers have invariably been confronted with a shortage. The smallest surplus known on any August 1st prior to this year was in 1907 when the figures were 29,826. This year the surplus was 30,616, so that the Railway Age is certainly not giving a needless alarm. Even without the trouble of a great railroad strike it is very apparent that troublesome times await the shipper and consumer. Since the railroads cannot increase their equipment in time to relieve conditions, all the help that can come will be for merchants and others to have their goods moved earlier than usual and for the railroads to shorten up the time allowed for unloading. Forewarned is forearmed and some beneficial results should come from the clear statement of the situation made by the Railway Age, which has the well earned reputation of giving only reliable information along such lines.

Dim the Auto Headlights

The suggestion comes that while there is no law covering the matter, that for the sake of the comfort and safety automobile drivers should dim their lights during chautauqua week. Even with the travel on Hardin avenue and other highways adjacent to the chautauqua grounds last night auto drivers found the going difficult owing to the glare of headlights. Unless people of their own accord adopt the plan of dimming their lights at least during the next ten days in the vicinity of the chautauqua grounds, there is almost a certainty of accident. This appeal is made for the common good and with the realization that the danger and annoyance from undimmed auto headlights is really occasioned by thoughtlessness. Remember to dim the lights.

THE DEAD ONES

We have grown up in the belief that all the geniuses are dead; the living writers run to beef, instead of brains, within the head. We talk of Addison and Steele, and grow excited over their charms; and as we talk of them we feel that modern scribbles are false alarms. The other day distraught and tired, I took Joe Addison, his book, and, hoping that I'd be inspired, I read it in the inglenook. Oh, yci, he has a graceful style—as Goldsmith had, and all that bunch—but you must read about a mile before you come across a punch. And Joseph's morals were O. K. the output of a thoughtful dome; but he would preach for half a day, to drive one little lesson home. If I should make my screeds so long, you'd close your eyes and gently snore, or else, impelled by sense of wrong you'd shoot me for a turgid bore. I don't believe that he or Steele, or any other old time bard, could sell the stuff they used to reel, today, and get five cents a yard.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

August 18, 1779—Colonel John Todd, Lieutenant of the country of Illinois, wrote to the Virginia assembly asking to be relieved of his duties; he considered it impossible to carry on an effective government, and he found life in the region unhealthy and disagreeable.

the simplicity and plainness of the man and the approachability that he maintained to his final day. Many of those present in the audience were impressed with how well that portion of the tribute paid to Dr. Murphy applied to the speaker himself. Dr. Mayo's surgical success has been little short of phenomenal and in about two decades he has established a great name. One needs but to see Dr. Mayo to be impressed with his plainness and simplicity. There is no air of mystery about him. He meets physicians and other people upon common ground. He does not reach down to them but reaches out and his hand clasp gives the impression that he wishes all who meet him to feel that there is kinship. Dr. Mayo's aristocracy is evidently that of brains and while he is undoubtedly aware of the conspicuous place that he holds in the public mind—aware of what he has accomplished—yet there is nothing in his manner to indicate that he feels above the level of the humblest practitioner. So Dr. Mayo furnishes another fine example of the simplicity of greatness.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Florence E. Baumberger, a Columbia University master of arts, who has specialized in the Teachers' College, has been made an instructor in the pedagogical department of John Hopkins University. She will give instruction in elementary education and supervision and will conduct investigations in the field.

Shadow Lawn, the stately Presidential summer mansion in New Jersey, has lost some of the gravity of its lofty halls and sweeping lawns with the coming of little Miss Ellen McAdoo, the President's granddaughter, and her tiny niece, little Miss Martin, child of Secretary McAdoo's daughter, who are at present guests of the President and Mrs. Wilson.

The only woman commercial editor in Canada lives in Winnipeg. She is Miss Cora E. Hind, yet young in years, who began her newspaper career as a "country correspondent" but today occupies an important editorial chair on one of the largest dailies in the Dominion, the Winnipeg Free Press. Miss Hind is the only woman who has ever crossed the pit floor of the Winnipeg Stock Exchange. She knows as much about markets as any New York plunger, her knowledge having been won by hard work and deep concentration on a subject generally foreign and distasteful to the feminine mind.

Who are the richest women in the world? Contrary to what one might at first conclude, these women are not found in the United States, and even when Hetty Green was alive with her $100,000,000 and the title of "world's richest woman" frequently bestowed upon her, it would seem that Uncle Sam must yield the financial palm here to some other country. Bertha Krupp, (Baroness von Bohlen), owner of Krupp's immense gunworks at Essen, is by some authorities reputed to be worth twice the sum attributed to Hetty Green. The earnings of the vast center of destruction which is now Germany's very staff of life in the war, have reached fabulous sums during the past two years, and the already staggering fortune of this German Rockefeller in petticoats is said to have increased by one third. Another millionairess of Rockefellerian size is Senora Cusino, of Chili, owner of silver, coal and copper mines, whose "little pile" is estimated at $200,000,000. Mexico also boasts of an immensely wealthy woman, Senora Creel, whose income is a million a year. As to American rich women, it is estimated that in the tidy sum of $1,000,000,000 is in the hands of women of the United States "in their own right," and if statistics are true 45 women of great wealth in the country entirely manage and hold the purse strings of more than $720,000,000. Mrs. Mary Harriman, Mrs. Russell Sage, and Mrs. Annie Wightman Walker of Philadelphia are generally estimated women of almost limitless wealth, though their fortunes are never described in such staggering figures as these tales told of foreign wealth. These may be cases where distance lends body to the purse, and American feminine fortunes possibly are described abroad with the same lavish use of millions on paper.

Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, president of the National Association Opposed to Woman's Suffrage, is a native of Hartford and a resident of New York. She studied at Vassar, is a widow, and has been for a score of years identified with the movement of conservative women who do not wish the old order to pass. She is editor of the Woman's Protest, an anti-suffrage publication. Mrs. Dodge, aside from her anti-suffrage activities, has done her share in the work of the National Association of Day Nurseries and of the Needlework Guild of New York, working in many of her efforts for the betterment of working women side by side along the same lines as some of the more passionate militants in the suffragist camp. Her party, says Mrs. Dodge, is the true feminist party and the anti-suffrage opposition the only real movement for the welfare of women, her suffrage sisters being mistaken in their efforts and not true feminists. She has been bitter in her denunciation of the favorable stand taken by Mr. Hughes on suffrage. Mr. Hughes stands for suffrage, she says, with the Machiavelian design of eliminating the feminist party and is like the woman who marries a man to reform him. In satisfying a discontented minority of American women, she esteems, he has arrayed himself against a resentful majority.

VOSELLER-STRICKLAND WEDDING SOLEMNIZED AT WHITE HALL

Ceremony Wednesday Evening at T. M. Hull Residence—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, Ill., Aug. 17.—The marriage of A. O. Vosseller and Mrs. Annie Strickland took place Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of T. M. Hull on South Main street, Mrs. Hull being a sister of the bride. Rev. Arthur Frederick Ewert, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was the officiating clergyman. About twenty members of the immediate families were present.

It was ceremony beautiful in simplicity, and unites a couple worthy in every respect of the high esteem in which they are held. Their acquaintance has been lifelong, and both have been identified actively in patriotic affairs of the community. Mr. Vosseller having served several terms as commander of the local G. A. R. post.

The occasion brought out another affair of direct concern to the Hull family by the news that Albert Hull, son of the late L. K. Hull, and Miss Mary Bowman were married at Corvallis, Oregon, on the 5th inst, both being residents of that city. The couple went up into the mountains in company with half a dozen other couples to have the ceremony performed. The groom is engaged in the grocery business at Corvallis. He was born and raised at Foodhouse, and was educated in the schoolhouse and the University of Illinois. He went to Oregon four years ago last March. His father died over twenty years ago, and his mother resides at Champaign.

White Hall News Notes.

Word from Mrs. Frank Pierce of Shreveport, La., states that her father, Joseph Westedde, is in a helpless condition, having been taken to his bed. His condition is critical. Ernest Pearce assisted the Wrights band at the soldiers' reunion at Palmyra on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cade and son were here from Patterson Wednesday on their way to Rockbridge, where Mr. Cade will have the principalship of the schools.

W. H. Meyerstein was in Jerseyville Monday. E. N. Gillham was down from Winchester a couple of days this week, and was an interested spectator at the Gregory Farm Berkshire sale. He is perfecting a stanchion that affords facilities not yet offered by any similar device, and has prepared a model for the patent office.

MATRIMONIAL

Taylor-Scott.

The marriage of George Taylor and Miss Minnie E. Scott of Waverly took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Georgiana Scott, mother of the bride. The Rev. N. R. Johnson, Methodist pastor of Waverly circuit, said the ceremony in the presence of about forty relatives and friends. Soon after the ceremony the wedding supper was served. The groom is a resident of the Grace Chapel neighborhood, northwest of the city, but for the past few months has been employed on the farm of Ezra Stewart near Waverly. Both young people have always made this county their home and both will receive words of congratulation in large number. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will make their home on a farm near Waverly.

Rochester-Lakin.

Arthur B. Rochester and Miss Martha J. Lakin, both of Manchester were married Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock by the Rev. F. A. McCarty at his home on West College avenue. The couple were attended by Glenn Funk and Miss Neva Rochester and the ceremony was witnessed by Mrs. F. C. Lakin and Mrs. N. J. Rochester, the mothers of the young people. The bride has for the past two years held the position of postmistress in her home town and the groom has been engaged in teaching school. Mr. and Mrs. Rochester will make their home in Liberty where the former has a position for the coming year.

Both young people are members of the M. E. church and both have been active workers in the church and Sunday school. The entire community will extend best wishes and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Rochester for a happy married life.

Charles T. Caywood of Jacksonville in charge. The music was furnished by a chorus of friends accompanied by Miss May Boulware at the piano.

The burial was made in Franklin cemetery, with grandsons of the deceased serving as bearers. They were Avery Dugger, Rags Dugger, Sherman Bowyer, Ralph Bowyer, Gus Bowyer and Carl Bowyer.

NEW LUBRICANT RESISTS HEAT PREVENTS RAPID SEDIMENTATION

Ordinary oil breaks down under the terrific heat of an automobile engine. Within a few hours, black sediment is formed which partially clogs-out the remaining liquid from the friction points where lubrication is most vital. Such under-supply of oil causes friction between the metal surfaces, intense heat, loss of power and expensive repairs.

The new lubricant that resists heat prevents rapid sedimentation, insures generous lubrication, and, except where mechanical faults exist, prevents carbon. Make this test: Clean out the crank case. Fill with kerosene. Run the motor about thirty seconds under its own power; then draw out all kerosene and refill with Vedol. Now make a test run over a familiar road—up steep hills and along straight level stretches. Keep a record of oil and gasoline mileage. You will find that your motor has altogether new pickup and hill climbing ability. Vedol enables you to get the maximum mechanical efficiency from your car and to reduce your expenses. Get a five-gallon can of Vedol, and make this convincing road test.

Relative Oil Destruction

The contents of the bottles shown, illustrate the relative durability of ordinary oil and of Vedol. The new lubricant that resists heat. Vedol deposits only a small fraction as much sediment as ordinary oils.

There is a fundamental difference between ordinary oils and Vedol. Ordinary oils are unstable and therefore unserviceable because of non-heat-resisting chemical structure. Special processes of manufacture developed by this company and the use of Pennsylvania paraffine-base crude oil give Vedol, the new lubricant, its unusual chemical structure, and its remarkable heat-resisting ability.

FORTY YEARS SINCE

FIRST NO-HIT GAME

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 17—The first no-hit game, no player reaching first in the history of the great American pastime was decided just 40 years ago today, and James Galvin of the St. Louis Reds was the pitcher who accomplished this feat, pitching in a game against the Case Club of Detroit. The contest took place at Iona, Mich., Aug. 17, 1876. This accomplishment of Galvin's was repeated in 1879 by J. L. Richmond of the Worcester National League club, pitching against Springfield. Again, on June 12, 1889, Richmond again accomplished the feat in a game against Cleveland, and in the same year, on June 17, John M. Ward, pitching for Providence, defeated Buffalo without allowing a batter to reach first base. No additions were made to these names of record-making pitchers until twenty-four years later, when on May 3, 1904, Denton T. (Cy) Young of the Boston American League team defeated the Philadelphia Athletics in a game in which not a player reached the first station. Addie Joss, pitching for Cleveland, defeated the White Sox in a game played on Oct. 2, 1908, without allowing a hit.

because of the disastrous effect on the country. He then said that after reviewing the situation thoroughly he had drawn up a plan which he thought was fair to both sides, and which he hoped would be accepted by both.

The president declared he believed in the principle of the eight hour day and that he thought the greater part of the people of the United States held a similar view. Regarding the collateral issues the president admitted that he was at a loss to say how they should be settled.

If the question of overtime and other problems were left to him, he said, he would have to ask for a commission to help him decide what would be fair.

He added that in his belief there were enough honest men in the United States to decide these questions fairly to both sides and that they would do so if called upon. At the conclusion of the president's talk the four brotherhood heads questioned him in order to bring out all of the points for the benefit of the members of the general committee who have not been at the former white house conferences.

Employees Hold Conference.

After they left the white house the men were in conference for two hours at their hall.

The conference tonight between the railroad presidents and managers committee developed further indications that the managers were to be backed up by their chiefs in the attitude they had adopted toward the president's proposal.

"We have gone over the situation thoroughly," said one of the presidents as he left the conference, "and we agree thoroughly in every particular with what the committee has done."

The conference between the railroad presidents and managers committee did not break up until midnight. It was said another meeting would be held tomorrow before going to the white house to acquaint the western presidents arriving in the morning with details of the negotiations.

Indications when tonight's conference adjourned were that the railroads would issue soon a comprehensive statement setting forth their position.

Hale Holden, president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, was designated as spokesman for the roads in tomorrow's white house conference.

Optimism marked every move of the Brotherhood men during the day. They were pleased over the president's plan.

Every precaution was used to prevent any save members of the Brotherhood from obtaining admission to the various meetings today both at the hall and at the white house. It was arranged for several men to check the members as they applied for admission. Special guards also were placed on all of the fire escapes, windows and stairways, and the doors closed before the meeting began. At the white house brotherhood men carefully examined every one in the meeting before the president spoke. The president's decision to invite the railroad presidents to the white house was reached after he had become convinced that the committee of managers here would not consent to the eight hour day plan. The invitations were sent to all presidents "immediately accessible."

William Jennings Bryan it developed today has sought unsuccessfully to settle the strike by the application of his temporary truce peace plan, having telegraphed to heads of the various brotherhoods and the president asking that it be put into effect. It would provide for a truce of one year during which time the contentions of both sides to the controversy should be investigated thoroughly by a commission and a settlement attempted on the findings of the commissioners.

Number of Reports Decrease

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 17.—There was a marked decrease today in the number of reports of infantile paralysis cases received by the state department of health from points in the state outside of New York City. Only one death and 36 cases were reported during the 24 hours, ending at five p. m.

AMBASSADOR ELKUS DEPARTS FOR POST

New York, Aug. 17.—Abram I. Elkus, the new United States ambassador to Turkey, is booked to sail on the Oscar II today, en route to his new post. He will travel by way of Germany and Austria and expects to reach his destination about September 1. Immediately on his arrival at Constantinople the new ambassador will probably lay before the Porte the American protest against the alleged Turkish atrocities upon Armenians, which are said to have been more severe of late than at any time since the beginning of the war.

Jacob Frisch of Springfield was in the city yesterday, calling on his brother Henry Frisch manager of the local branch of the clothing house of Myers Brothers. While in the country he managed to visit the gatherings at Franklin and Chapin in the interest of his candidacy for the legislature.

MANY CITIES TO HONOR HIM

Black Farm Was Mecca of More Than Three Hundred and Fifty Thursday—Technical Subjects Discussed—Social Features of Occasion Greatly Emphasized.

Weather and road conditions were exceedingly favorable for the annual picnic given by the Medical societies of Morgan and Cass counties at the Black farm in Cass county. Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Black co-operated actively with the committee on arrangements from the two societies and nothing was left undone which would add to the interest of the occasion or the comfort of those who attended.

Physicians From Many Cities
The mere announcement that Dr. W. J. Mayo of Rochester would be present to make an address was sufficient to attract the notice of physicians in all parts of the state.

Peoria, Bloomington, Galesburg and Lincoln were among the cities that sent the largest delegations. Dr. Mayo was accompanied by Mrs. Mayo; Dr. L. G. Rountree, head of the medical department of the University of Minnesota, and Dr. D. S. Fairchild of Clinton, Iowa. Following the address by Dr. Mayo which was given at 2:30 in the afternoon, other physicians spoke briefly. Dr. Mayo's theme was "Stone in the Kidney."

Physicians began to arrive at the farm before 11 o'clock and by the noon hour nearly all of the large company had assembled. Many parties had brought their own luncheon and others had made arrangements with a local caterer to serve them. The grove on the Black farm is admirably adapted to such a gathering and the social feature of the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed, evidently by the visitors from Minnesota as well as all others in the gathering.

Program in Afternoon.

A spacious tent had been placed in a shady spot in the grove and there about 2:30 o'clock the entire company gathered for the formal part of the day's program. Dr. C. E. Soule of Beardstown, representing the Cass County Medical society, presided and first introduced Dr. L. G. Rountree, head of the department of the University of Minnesota. The theme of his address was "Uremia and Acidosis." Dr. Rountree has made special original investigations into the kidney functions and diseases. He went to Minnesota from Johns Hopkins University, where he had for a number of years served acceptably as professor of medicine. Then the chairman introduced Dr. W. J. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., referring briefly to the great pleasure the local physicians had in entertaining such a distinguished guest, a man whose work in surgery has given him a national reputation. Dr. Mayo's address or lecture was on "Stone in the Kidney", and he made it very practical for the physicians present by the use of a series of wall charts. Dr. Mayo spoke in language especially simple for the handling of such a subject and the laymen in the audience were enabled to a large extent to understand what he was discussing, tho, of course, there were technical references the meaning of which was known only to the physicians and surgeons present.

A Tribute to Dr. Murphy.

He prefaced his address with a tribute to the late Dr. Murphy of Chicago, whom he termed the greatest surgeon of his time. He related how Dr. Murphy after graduating at Rush college had pursued his medical education in Vienna, and the speaker attributed a portion of Dr. Murphy's great success to the advantages received from such a long association with men in Vienna eminent in the profession. Reference was made also to the simplicity and kindness of Dr. Murphy, who not withstanding his continued successes was ever willing to listen to the views of the humblest men in the profession and who seemingly felt that he might easily learn something of value from all with whom he came in contact.

Dr. D. S. Fairchild of Clinton, Iowa, was called upon at the conclusion of Dr. Mayo's address but made only brief remarks. Then Dr. C. E. Black was called upon and voiced the feeling of all those present in expressing the pleasure the members of the Morgan-Cass county medical societies had in having Dr. Mayo and his associates as guests for the day. Other physicians called upon were Dr. Otis and Dr. Kreider of Springfield and Dr. Percy of Galesburg.

On motion of Dr. Kreider thanks were expressed to Dr. and Mrs. Black for the many courtesies of the day and to the physicians who made the long journey from Minnesota to attend the picnic. As previously stated, Dr. Mayo and party arrived in the Mayo steamer at Keokuk Wednesday afternoon and then started by automobile toward the picnic grounds. Dr. Blender of Carthage joined them at that city to serve as pilot and Dr. Black drove to Beardstown and accompanied the visitors to the farm home where all were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Black until Thursday afternoon. Then they started in their automobiles for Quincy, passing thru this city.

Dr. Mayo's Great Work

Dr. Mayo's success in surgical work in recent years has made the name famous from ocean to ocean. With his brother and their staff of eighty physicians they care for an average of 300 cases a day. Thru inheritance from their father they

An Historical Fact

Even before the days of our forefathers, extracts from the same kind of roots, herbs and barks, now used in compounding the ingredients for S. S. S., were well known and extensively used among the Indians.

Science and modern methods have only changed the Indians way of handling the materials, the essential features are still in evidence in S. S. S.—Nature's Greatest Blood Purifier—and a natural sequence of the Indians favorite medicine.

Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I can recommend Senreco as the best." "Makes the teeth glisten and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit." "I am indeed glad to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Congratulations you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

Chautauqua Notes

Dr. Medbury, who opens the lecture program today is pastor of the largest Protestant church in the Mississippi Valley, the Christian church of Des Moines. He was a chaplain in the Spanish war and is now chaplain of Drake University. He has traveled the world and lived a life of varied experiences. He has given special attention to the young folks and his sparkling popular lectures appeal strongly to young men and women.

Visitors at the grounds yesterday were delighted with the beauty of the park, the arrangements on the grounds, the extra pains that have been taken for the comfort, convenience and safety of the public and with the good conditions of the roads leading to the park.

Several roads leading to the park have been oiled and pre now in good condition. From the city the following routes are over oiled or cindered roads, from South Diamond pavement east on Michigan to Main or Hardin, or east on Michigan to Church and South to Greenwood and east to Main, from South Main to Vandalia and thence into the grounds. The roadways in the park are oiled.

Prof. G. I. Christie, who speaks tomorrow evening has an unusual message on the public schools. He is an orator of ability and has done things in Indiana and knows how to tell what he has done and what can be done with our schools. He is in great demand as a speaker for the great National and State meetings of men interested in the development of our greatest asset—the boys and girls.

The C. A. Sheppard Piano house furnishes the piano for the platform. The Short Kids are camping on the grounds. They will render a complimentary program tomorrow afternoon and Sunday evening. It does one good to see the way these talented children wake up the people in ad around the big tent. They have a great future before them.

The Chautauqua will be opened with a fine concert by our own Jeffries' Concert Band. Their programs please everyone and Jacksonville is always loyal to this fine band.

There has been much discussion among our farmers as to the employment of a county adviser. All the progressive agricultural counties in our country are employing or arranging to employ advisers. Notwithstanding the discussion of the matter here many do not understand the "why" and the benefits of an adviser. Mr. Howard Leonard of Eureka, Ill., a real farmer, will tell us why his county employs an adviser, on Saturday afternoon. He will be glad to answer questions.

The management asks campers to maintain silence after 11:30. Heretofore a few thoughtless campers have annoyed others well into night. This will not be tolerated this year. It is hoped that the public will not crowd the aisles of the big tent with chairs and that the crowds at the entrances will maintain silence so as not to annoy the big audiences.

A checking station for wraps and parcels has been established at the Secretary's office.

The experienced ladies of the Central Christian church will have charge of the Dining Hall again this year. A new kitchen has been erected and other improvements have been made so that their service will be better than ever this year.

Some of those who subscribed have not as yet bought their tickets. The management buys the Chautauqua on the basis of subscribed tickets and, of course, must meet its obligations and by the same token expects every subscriber to buy of the Secretary the tickets he subscribed for. The payment of these tickets is due ten days before the opening of the Chautauqua. All subscribers who have not taken up their pledges are expected to call at the office of the Secretary before noon today and redeem their pledges.

Mr. Lingham is mighty proud of the big tent he erected for the assembly. It is a brown-topped tent, is the largest Chautauqua tent used in Illinois and the largest ever used at our assembly. Mr. Bigham's skill was taxed to erect it in the space but he squeezed it in. One of his experienced men will be on the grounds at all times during the assemblage in charge of the tents. The chairs in the tent are new ones and of a better type than those we have heretofore had. Especial care is being exercised in the erection of tents, platform and bleachers in order that everything may be perfectly safe.

Mr. Bigham takes much interest in our assembly. He has seen it grow from nothing until now it is the largest Chautauqua in the state and is earning the reputation of being the best in the West. Our home folks do not realize that under this management of our own citizens the Chautauqua has grown to be the largest and best in Illinois. That it is so, is conceded by the bureau and by other Chautauquas. One of our leading merchants said yesterday, "The Chautauqua is the biggest thing Jacksonville has done in a good many years, and should have the hearty support of everyone interested in the community."

Bob Seeds who appears tomorrow is the greatest repeater on the circuit. No other attraction fills so many return engagements. His lectures, filled with fun and humor are irresistible, and everyone wants to hear him again.

Dr. F. M. Rule, for many years actively engaged in Chautauqua work, says the program is by far the best he has seen scheduled anywhere this year. He especially recommends Dr. Caroline Geisel who appears twice next Sunday, Prof. Christie who is on tomorrow evening and the big Metropolitan Grand Quartet. Dr. Rule says that one of his friends defines a Chautauqua as a cross between a vaudeville and a camp meeting.

Notwithstanding the fact that there are more than twice as many campers as heretofore, the Secretary still has some good tents and fair locations left for those who speak soon.

Every day at the Chautauqua is a farmers' day, but the programs of two days have been arranged to especially interest the farmers. And these two programs will interest the town folks as well as the farmers for they cover a broad range of subjects.

In the afternoon, Saturday, Aug. 19, Bob Seeds will be heard in one of his inimitable, humorous lectures. Bob says he is a farmer and talks as tho he knew how to farm. Those who have heard him know that he catches the crowd with his humor and good-natured fun. He repeats year after year at many Chautauquas and the audiences always give him a royal welcome.

Mr. Howard Leonard of Woodford County, Illinois, a real farmer who lives upon and operates a large farm and knows the problems of the Illinois farmer, will speak in the afternoon. He will tell us why his county employs a county adviser and how this adviser helps him and his neighbors.

Prof. G. I. Christie, Superintendent of Agricultural Extension in the schools of Indiana will speak in the evening. Prof. Christie has made the schools of the Hoosier state famous for their efficiency. He has a great message and delivers it in a forceful and convincing manner. He will give the town and country folks plenty to think about. The music on this day will be furnished by the Jeffries' Concert Band and by the Short Kids.

Sam Jordan, the man who has been "showing" the farmers of Missouri, appears in the afternoon, Saturday, Aug. 26. He is a charming and forceful speaker and loses no time in making his points and sending them home. There is nothing dry about Sam. Everyone will enjoy his address.

Mr. J. W. Kirkton, farmer, of Livingston county, Illinois, will also speak in the afternoon. Livingston county has one of the best farm bureaus in the country. Mr. Kirkton has been and now is in close touch with the work of his county adviser and will tell us what this adviser did for him.

Mr. J. P. Gilbert will speak in the evening on Birds and Bugs. Mr. Gilbert is an authority on these subjects and in a popular way tells us about the benefits of the birds and the ways of the bugs. His lectures appeal alike to young and old.

The Metropolitan Grand Quartet will sing afternoon and evening.

Dr. James Whitcomb Brounger the big preacher of Los Angeles, who preaches to the largest regular congregation in the world, has a dozen great lectures full of pith and pep, and if you don't believe it, hear him Monday afternoon and he will cure your unbelief. He goes right after the follies and frailties of humanity and does not hesitate to go direct to the point. Between the lashes he soothes his hearers with good humor and stories and they take his message right gladly. Dr. Brounger belongs to the eccentric type of preacher, but he is not uncouth or uneducated. He looks more the political orator or the villain in the melodrama than the preacher. For ten years he has appeared in his pulpit during the summer season in his "Ice-cream suit." This summer he appeared in his pulpit in a white "sport-shirt." He says it is just as proper for a man to show his wishbone as for a lady, besides it is more comfortable than a stiff collar that squeezes your "Adam's Apple" till you taste cider. Sensational? Of course he is. Yet his lectures abound with harmonies, metaphors flourish and sentences swing, periods are rounded, the thunder of oratory reverberates and the spell of the preacher possesses fine man and the audience.

Some one complains that Chautauqua takes money out of town. This objection is never raised by any one who has worked hard for his community. It is the wall of the man who works only for himself. A circus takes five or ten thousand dollars out of town. Chautauqua gives ten days for less money than the circus gives in a day. Then it makes a pleasant and profitable vacation for many who would otherwise spend

A Valuable Road Leveler

Following is a description of the road leveler so highly prized and invented by A. E. Nissen of Iowa City. There is no patent on it; it is good for muddy as well as dry highways and is a fine article at all times.

It will do the work regardless of what conditions the roads are in. The leveler can be built very easily by any farmer and when put into operation proves to be one of the most practical road drags ever devised.

The proper way to make same is as follows: Take two planks 2x12 inches, by 10 feet, preferably of oak, or some strong wood, and stand same on edge like the runners of a sled, then take three planks 2x12 inches by 7 feet and securely fasten them across the front, back and center. Then round up the front and back of the 10 foot planks, and you will now have nothing more or less than a double pointed sled, 10 feet long and 7 feet wide.

After this is done, have two planks 2x12 inches and about 9 feet long fastened at an angle of about 45 degrees and connecting the two ten foot planks, the front plank being 1-2 feet back of the front of this sled, on the right and 5 feet back on the left side. The back plank being 1-2 feet back of the front plank. Have about a three inch iron shoe on these two planks; this will give you a drag on the same principle as other drags, but will have runners on the side.

On the left side of the drag have an opening in front of the two drags so as to dispose of the surplus dirt which is bound to be caused by the dragging of the road.

Have a link on the right and left side of this drag and attach a chain to same and hitch the horses as close as possible, and you will find that a single team can pull this drag in the mud easier than a double team can pull any other drag on the market. And after a double round trip has been made with this drag there will be only a very slight ridge left in the center of the road, and the road will have a nice crown.

Indianapolis Tractor Show
The program for the National Farm Tractor Demonstration to be given at Indianapolis from Monday August 28, to Friday, September 1, has just been issued by the Indianapolis Tractor Club under the auspices of which the exposition will be staged.

The exposition, which will be presented on a tract of 1,000 acres on a tract six miles west of Indianapolis, will be opened formally at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, Aug. 28. Governor Ralston, Mayor Bell and other prominent men will speak after which 100 tractors will give their initial demonstration to the farmers of Indiana and surrounding states. During the rest of the week demonstrations will be given each morning and afternoon. Private demonstrations to persons interested will be given each morning with public exhibitions each afternoon.

Hogging Down Corn

Hogging down corn may be considered a method of lazy farming, still it has many advantages that will appeal to the farmer who has a good bunch of young hogs and is short of help. With corn around 75 cents a bushel, of course one must handle the hogs right and I do not know that any one claims that it is practical and profitable to hog down corn when it can be easily cribbed, or when the crop can be utilized as silage or even when stover can be utilized. When corn is badly down and when labor is scarce let young hogs do the husking job. Experiments have shown that it is more profitable to feed the hogs that way than feeding green corn in a dry lot.

Young hogs are best for this work, and they should be allowed to run over only what they will clean up in about two weeks. Turn in as soon as the corn is well dent-ed; and if rape or soy beans have been sowed among the corn so much the better, and most any bunch of young hogs running from 100 to 150 pounds will make good. The first week on green feed is the critical period. It is best to accustom the hogs to green feed by cutting the corn and feeding the hogs a week or two in a dry lot, before turning into the field. L. C. Brown, in The Farmers' Review, Chicago.

ARCADIA

The young people of this neighborhood attended a party at the home of Samuel Davis in honor of his niece, Miss Clara Davis, who is here on a visit from Kansas. There were about 60 guests present and all report a good time.

E. H. Thompson and family, C. E. Clark and family and J. J. Clark spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Neill.

The family of H. H. Birdsell of Virginia spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks and attended the Ladies' Aid picnic Saturday night.

The Ladies' Aid held their annual picnic at the home of Mrs. F. B. Henderson Saturday night. The rainy weather kept quite a number away but there were about 125 present. The Litterberry orchestra furnished music for the evening. Miss Lillian Bateman gave a reading and Reverend F. M. Crabtree of the Litterberry Baptist church delivered a short address. One of the most important events of the evening was the supper which consisted of sandwiches, all kinds of salads, ice tea, ice cream and cake. This event is the only time in the year that the men can attend the Ladies' Aid and they all seemed to enjoy themselves.

SPEAKING OF THE ROBINS

Brooklyn enter the National league in 1890 and brought home the pennant the first year.

After winning the pennant in the year of its National league debut Brooklyn repeated the trick in 1899 and 1900.

Only once during the 26 years that Brooklyn has been in the National league has the team finished in the cellar. This was in 1905.

Since 1912 the Brooklyn team has bettered its position in the pennant race each year. The team finished seventh in 1911, sixth in 1913, fifth in 1914 and third in 1915.

In the short space of two years Manager Wilbert Robinson of the Robins has won a place among the most successful pilots in the big show.

While the Robins have been leading the National league in batting they have been a second division in fielding.

Three veteran pitchers, Marquard, Coombs and Cheney, have been doing excellent work for Brooklyn after all three had been released by other teams.

George Cutshaw, whose work around the second cushion has proved a sensation, came to Brooklyn in 1912 from the Oakland team of the Pacific Coast league.

McCarthy and Daubert of the Brooklyn team are included among the ten .300 hitters in the National league, while Daubert and Cutshaw are among the first half dozen base stealers.

Zach Wheat is the oldest player on the Brooklyn team in point of service. Wheat joined the team in August, 1909. Jake Daubert is the next oldest, having joined the team in the Spring of 1910.

Wilbert Robinson, the Robins' boss, is the third member of a famous old trio of Baltimore Orioles who later became great baseball managers. The other two were McGraw of the Giants and Jennings of the Detroit Tigers.

First known as the Trolley Dodgers, the nickname of the Brooklyn team was changed to the Superbas when Ned Hanlon became pilot. The name owed its origin to "Hanlon's Superbas," at that time a popular spectacular production on the stage.

"Robins," the present nickname of the team, was given in honor of Manager Wilbert Robinson.

One of the noticeable features in Brooklyn's dash to the front has been the fast work displayed by the many veteran pastimers now on the team. Players who have been wearing big league spangles for years, including Mowrey, Meyers, Olson, Coombs, Marquard, and Cheney, are now going like two-year-olds.

Losing the first two games of the present season put the Robins in the cellar, where they remained until April 19, when they beat the Giants and moved up a notch. They held down seventh place until April 23 and then started to climb in earnest. April 29 found the team in second place and on May 1 they grabbed the top rung of the pennant ladder. They lost the lead the next day but regained it one day later and have been burning up the league ever since.

MABLE TRASK WINS ATHLETIC CLUB OF COLUMBUS STAKE

Columbus, O., Aug. 17.—Mabel Trask, beaten by St. Frisco last week at Pittsburgh, won from him this afternoon in a five heat battle for the Athletic Club of Columbus $5,000 stake. The race brought a new world's record for a five heat trot, the best previous time having been made in 1911 by Brace Girdle.

Miss Perfection did the pace making in the next three heats, Mabel Trask and St. Frisco trailing until the turns home. The last quarter of the fifth and final heat was stepped in 30 seconds. ## Chautauqua Notes their money at other Chautauquas or on excursions out of town. It is fair to say that our Chautauqua keeps more money at home many times over than it sends out of town and it brings wholesome entertainment, good music, inspirational lectures and the association with men and women of high ideals and great achievement.

A leading Chautauqua Bureau manager recently said, "don't send us any lecturers," is the unanimous cry among applicants for talent for the first season. "We want music and fun. We want to be entertained." The inevitable request the second season is for more lectures. The music and fun are enjoyed, but the lecturers arouse a new spirit in the community. People seek Chautauquas for entertainment and find in the lectures the inspiration needed to help develop a live, co-operative trend toward individual and community betterment. The lecturers they want back are the ones who give the most vital social messages. The people care more for what the speakers have to say than how they say it. They want to be waked up.

The program of the 1916 chautauqua with plenty of good music and the best entertainment is filled with famed lecturers who will present vital social messages and wake up the people. More than a dozen of America's greatest orators and social leaders will be heard, every one of whom is a top-notch.

NICHOLS PARK SHOOT IS BROUGHT TO CLOSURE

WILL RANK AS ONE OF CLUB'S MOST SUCCESSFUL EVENTS

Second Day of Tournament Marked by Close Contest Between Lewis and Ammans—Rambo and Cornell High Amateurs.

The big shoot at Nichols Park Gun Club closed yesterday afternoon. The shoot was one of the most successful ever held by the club and all the visiting shooters were well pleased with the treatment accorded them by Jacksonville.

The real contest of the shoot, developed between Bart Lewis of Auburn and A. H. Ammans of Peotone, Ill. In the contest Wednesday Ammans led Lewis by one target, 145 to 147. In yesterday's shooting they tied at 144 each, thus giving Ammans the high score for the two days by one target. Both Lewis and Ammans are marksmen of exceptional ability and the way they broke the clay targets kept the gallery on edge.

Mr. Ammans is a steady shooter and when he pulls down on a target he generally gets it.

Mr. Lewis is probably the greatest trapshooter in the country having stood high in shooting for a number of years.

Both Mr. Ammans and Mr. Lewis went from here to St. Louis where the Grand American Handicap is to be held next week.

In the amateur event L. S. Rambo of DeLong, Ill., and A. C. Connor of Springfield came from behind with a rush and passed Frank Correll of Perry, Mo., and W. T. Craig of Jacksonville who tied for first place Wednesday. When the final scores for the two days were figured it was found that Mr. Connor and Mr. Rambo had tied for high run with 286 each. They divided the prizes.

The highest among the local shooters was W. T. Craig who finished with a score of 284 out of a possible 300. Mr. Craig shot exceptionally well Wednesday, but was not feeling well yesterday and fell below his usual scores. Frank V. 286 also shot very well.

W. R. Crosby, Professional, of O'Fallon, Ill., was the best long run shooter getting 114 and W. S. Hootman was high amateur with 102.

Most of the credit for the way the shoot was handled goes to Frank Vickery, J. A. Groves, A. M. Masters and Charles Magill. These gentlemen worked hard and kept things moving all the time.

The following are the scores for the two days, each man shooting at 300 targets:

A HAPPY MAN.

Editor Journal:

Uncle Sam Nichols ought to be the happiest man in the community when he goes to the Chautauqua and sees the great throng of people enjoying themselves. Without his generosity in providing the park, the Chautauqua would probably not be in existence. This community needs more men with the spirit of Uncle Sam.

FREIGHT CAR SITUATION

HAS SERIOUS LOOK

Railway Age Says Figures Indicate That Shortage for Fall Months Is Certain.

"The statistics regarding the freight car situation on August 1, which were issued by the American Railway Association this week are the most ominous that ever were compiled for the first week in August," says the Railway Age Gazette in its current issue.

"They indicate clearly that unless there is some unexpected and radical change in commercial, industrial and transportation conditions the railways and the shipping public will have to deal this fall and winter with one of the worst shortages of freight cars in the history of the United States. The gross car shortage reported on August 1, 1916, is the largest, the gross surplus is the smallest and the net surplus is the smallest ever reported on that date since statistics regarding these matters have been kept. The net surplus was only 10,616 cars. The smallest net surplus previously reported on August 1 was that of August 1907, which was 27,836 cars, and in the fall of that year there was a severe car shortage, the net shortage arising on October 30 1907 to 86,000 cars.

"Past experience seems to indicate that whenever the net surplus in the early part of August is less than 100,000 cars there is pretty sure to be a net shortage beginning in October or the early part of November. There were only three years from 1907 to 1915 inclusive, when the net surplus on August 1 was less than this. These were 1907, 1912 and 1913, and in every one of them there was a car shortage in the early fall and late winter. The figures regarding car shortages and surpluses and net surpluses on August 1 for the last ten years are as follows:

Freight shortages and surpluses on August 1 for ten years.

Aug. 1	Short	Surplus	Net Surplus
1916	37,292	47,908	10,616
1915	888	265,131	264,243
1914	2,333	198,998	196,665
1913	11,261	69,716	58,455
1912	9,394	65,904	56,510
1911	2,045	130,136	128,091
1910	2,783	105,564	102,781
1909	169	207,173	207,004
1908	635	281,621	280,986
1907	18,814	46,650	27,836

"In view of the serious condition which these statistics indicate will exist within the next few months unless heroic treatment is applied, it behooves the managers of the railways and the large shippers of the country to take steps at once toward the adoption of some plan of co-operation which will result in the car supply of the country being utilized in the most efficient manner possible. There are enough cars to handle the country's business if only they shall be handled with care and efficiency. The statistics plainly indicate that unless they are thus handled there is going to be serious trouble. Past experience has shown that a bad car situation may be made much less bad than it otherwise would be by the exercise of foresight and energy on the part of the railways and shippers, and by prompt and friendly co-operation between them."

LITERBERRY

Mrs. Charles Field and children of Geneva, Ia., spent Thursday and Friday at Bonnie Doone Cottage, visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels.

Miss Louisa Ray took dinner at Blue Grass Cottage last Thursday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Litter.

Ruel Wesley Petefish, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Petefish, Jr., is riding in a beautiful new buggy, the gift of his grandfather, J. B. Cooper, of Springfield.

Mr. C. C. Berryman and daughter of Jacksonville called on friends here Friday and took dinner at "The Ives" the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McFallen.

Mr. Edward Petefish of Cass and Morgan county line was doing business in Litterberry Friday.

Litterberry was well represented at the M. E. chicken fry at Concord last Wednesday. Several cars drove down, among them were Aaron Petefish, Orville Crum, D. K. McCarty, J. M. Litter, S. H. Crum and others; also there were buggies and other vehicles. All speak very highly of the excellent dinner served in the basement of the beautiful new church. The waiters were attentive and everybody was given good attention and lots to eat. We were entertained at the table superintended by Mrs. Walter McCarty and our plates were not allowed to go empty. Mrs. McCarty knows how to serve a chicken fry dinner.

The Campbell sisters, who formerly lived in Litterberry, came out Saturday and visited friends over Sunday.

Miss Mildred Underbrink, the youngest member of the Baptist Aid, brought in her birthday offering for the home missions on Saturday, she being nine years old on that day.

Miss Evaline Hull also has a birthday on the same day, and she is just the same age as Miss Mildred; so they celebrated the day together at the Hull home, three miles east of our town. Mrs. Hull had charge of affairs and the two little girls were treated to candy, nuts, oranges, cake, lemonade and lemonade. They had a fine little picnic and their many friends wish for them many more happy birthdays.

The Litterberry M. E. society met in regular meeting Saturday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Henderson. At 6 o'clock a pie supper was served to the members, their families and friends. A good program was carried out during the evening with recitations and music. Rev. F. M. Crabtree was the

HUNDREDS ATTEND
BIG FRANKLIN PICNICANNUAL GATHERING UNDER
CATHOLIC CHURCH AUSPICES
MOST SUCCESSFUL

Large Crowds Present From all Parts of County—Ex-Congressman Graham is Speaker—The List of Winners and Committees

Fully fifteen hundred people were served Thursday at the annual picnic at the Church of the Sacred Heart at Franklin. Hosts of people attended from all parts of the county. According to statements by Jacksonville Burlington officials one hundred bought tickets for the morning train for Franklin and eighty-five in the afternoon. This was only a small percentage, as the great majority of people went in cars. Those who made the trip on the afternoon train and wished to remain until after the evening train north had departed were given free auto transportation to Yemens. The entire community worked hard to make the picnic successful and it can certainly be said that their purpose was accomplished. At the noon hour a splendid dinner, including fried chicken and all good things to eat were served, and at supper an equally appetizing meal was set before the visitors. The picnic was orderly in every way. Plenty of officials were on the ground for the safety and convenience of visitors and all of the events were run off in scheduled time.

Much interest was aroused by the ball game in the afternoon, when the Franklin team met Hughett's Hummers of Jacksonville and winning the one sided contest by a 9 to 1 score.

The speaker of the day was the Hon. James M. Graham of Springfield. Mr. Graham made a stirring address on the Mexican situation. He spoke of Mexico as a republic in name, but not in fact, and told how Diaz, perhaps the strongest character in Mexican history thirty five or forty years ago organized the country, and called it a republic, and how he forced the people in one way and another to make him president, as he was called. In fact he was their dictator. Diaz sold out his country to American and foreign capitalists.

Mr. Graham asked the question, "Who Owns Mexico?" He showed that 43 per cent. of the big Mexican interests were owned by men in American finance. The gold, silver, copper and lead mines, petroleum fields, rubber industries and timber lands are in a large majority owned by Americans. The speaker pointed out the life the Mexican people leads. He told how he was really a slave, how the masters of these Peons hold them in their power. If they attempted to escape, state aid was called and when the runaway was captured he was made an example of. Their only hope of liberty is getting away and joining a band of bandits, similar to the one organized by Villa. Villa himself was at one time a peon, but by his scheming and cleverness he succeeded in escaping and forming one of the greatest outlaw bands in the country. These bandits are doing this to gain their liberty and freedom and it is often that they are able to enjoy the raiding of the home of their former master.

Mr. Graham spoke at length on the evils of American capitalism, showing that one per cent. of the population of the United States owns more than the other 99 per cent. of the people. When the directors of the United Steel Corporation, 24 in number, meet, they represent one-twelfth of the wealth of the country. He also told of abuses in the newspapers. He told how the Standard Oil company was making a plea for patriotism and how they practically control the petroleum interests in Mexico. He said that the American capitalists had learned the value of the great newspapers in creating public opinion, and for this reason they took measures to control these great newspapers and magazines.

Mr. Graham closed his address with a stirring appeal for peace and for President Wilson who he said is doing all in his power to prevent the young men of America from going into that country to save the lands of a few great capitalists.

J. H. COLTON WON HONORS AS DIRECTOR OF SHAKESPEAREAN PLAY

Spent Summer as Instructor in the Normal School at Minot, N. D.—Had Charge of Tercentennial Observance.

J. Herbert Colton was expected here Thursday from Minot, N. D., and for the next few weeks he will be at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Colton of Woodson. Mr. Colton is superintendent of schools at New Rockford, N. D., but during the summer months has held an instructor's position at the state normal school at Minot.

Mr. Colton had recently the direction of a Shakespearean festival presented by pupils of the summer session and assisted by Minot citizens in observance of the tercentennial of the great English dramatist. The production was entitled "Shakespeare Among the Nations" and was said to have been one of the finest home talent affairs that ever took place in that city, far ahead, in fact, of the most professional productions. The pageant was stationed on the banks of Lincoln lake and excellent natural scenery provided a fitting background for the performance. There were more than one hundred people in the cast and the Daily Optic-Reporter of Minot stated "The arrangement and carrying out of a spectacle on such a big scale meant the spending of an enormous amount of time and energy on both the part of the committees and students and friends of the school who were in the cast. They all succeeded to such a degree that for a few hours the atmosphere about Lincoln Lake breathed only of Shakespearean times and there was a little company of old world people in their quaint, queer costumes and ways of doing things that took their auditors with them back to the time when Shakespeare lived."

A UNIQUE TRAVELING OUTFIT.

Man Passes Thru Jacksonville With Dog Cart on Way to California.

The attention of many Jacksonville citizens was attracted Thursday by a queer traveling outfit which arrived from Springfield Wednesday evening and consisted of a cart bearing a common box and laden with tent and cooking utensils and drawn by two large dogs.

The man gave his name as "Steve, the dogman" and was traveling from the Herland building, New York City, to San Francisco to win a bet of $2,000, he had made with another man, the one first at San Francisco to have the money. The contestants agree to walk all the way, to earn their expenses as they travel and to be at the destination within eighteen months from the time of starting. They are not to sell anything but are to earn what they need for expenses.

The man here said his special occupation was mending umbrellas and he managed to pick up a decent living at it. He said he started February first and thought Kansas City would be half way. He said he traveled twenty to twenty five miles a day when the weather and roads were good. He was very plainly dressed but had the appearance of correct habits.

His dogs were geared with cheap leather breast harness, he himself supplying brake power when needed. One is Scotch collie and coyote, half and half, and the other English Shepherd and coyote, half and half. Both looked well and seemed satisfied with their job. The first named dog is four or five years old and the other about a year and not quite so hardy as the other. The competitor has St. Joe mastiffs but the man here didn't know how far the other had gotten on his way. The dogs here, the man said, were the ones with which he started and they looked as if they would make the trip.

FORMER BROWN COUNTY BOY IS SERGEANT IN BRITISH ARMY

Wilson McPhail, With New Zealand Contingent, Received Recent Promotion.

Morgan county relatives have received word that Wilson McPhail, formerly of Timewell, Brown county, who a few months ago joined a New Zealand troop contingent and has been serving on the French front, was recently promoted to the rank of sergeant. Mr. McPhail left Brown county more than a year ago and was married before leaving New Zealand. In a letter home he spoke of the great destruction wrought by great German artillery fire, mentioning especially the damage done to cathedrals and churches. As Sergeant McPhail had then emerged from two strenuous weeks in the trenches without receiving injury of any kind, good luck, as he expressed it, had not entirely deserted him.

Mr. McPhail is a cousin of E. E. McPhail north of the city and of Miss Lana McPhail.

Evening.
7:30 Concert—Jeffries Band.
8:00 Entertainment, Magic and Impersonations—Prof. J. M. Totten. Moving Pictures by T. S. Scott. The Chautauqua printed program has the following notes about the two speakers for today:

"Dr. Charles S. Medbury preaches to the largest Protestant congregation in the Mississippi Valley. He has traveled the world, was a chaplain in the Spanish-American war and has a great reputation for his work with children and the masses. He will be heard in a sparkling, popular lecture."

"Magic is always popular at a Chautauqua. In offering James M. Totten, Magician, Humorist and Impersonator, the management is assured that his novel entertainment will please all the occupants of the big tent."

Prof. J. H. Dial, formerly of Murrayville but now a resident of this city, will have charge of the platform during the Chautauqua. He has a wide acquaintance thru the county and is an all-around man. He has the faculty and ability of turning his hand to most anything and of doing that thing well. For many years he has been active in the affairs of the progressive community around Murrayville.

John Nunes, W. M.
John R. Phillips, Secretary.

CALLERS FROM WHITE HALL
F. C. Griswold of White Hall was in the city yesterday coming in his Allen car after having visited Patterson, Glasgow and other places in the interests of the White Hall Chautauqua which is to take place August 23 to 7th. Mr. Griswold is a brother of Dr. Griswold of this city and is a wide awake gentleman to meet, and the management surely made no mistake in sending him to advertise their enterprise.

PARK IN GOOD CONDITION

It was with a bit of pride that the Park Board management noted the condition of Central Park yesterday morning. The welcome guests of the day before left it littered from one side to the other and early in the forenoon it was clean and all right. The park is for the people who come to Jacksonville and they are always welcome and it will be kept in as neat condition as possible always.

THE PARK BOARD.

The park board held its regular meeting last evening with all members present. Various matters of routine business came up and received attention. There was nothing of any consequence for special report. It was the sense of the board that a suitable well should be sunk at Duncan park as soon as finances will admit.

The swing at reservoir park was ordered repaired. It was also suggested that another year a small amount of playground apparatus there would be a good thing. The apparatus at the first ward playground was reported in rather weakened condition which will require new material next year.

JACKSONVILLE TOURISTS

RETURN FROM THE WEST

Tomlinson Party Traveled More than 2,600 Miles—Visited Many Famous Points of Interest—Met Numerous Jacksonville People.

T. M. Tomlinson, Dr. W. B. Young and Edward Tomlinson returned to Jacksonville Thursday from their 2,660 mile auto trip thru the west, arriving at 10 a. m. from Hannibal. During nearly the entire time they camped at night sleeping on sanitary cots under canvas stretched from the car over their beds. Their journey to Cheyenne has already been outlined.

From Cheyenne they continued to Estes Park, Colo., and then to Boulder Falls where are the tungsten mines which they penetrated to a depth of 810 feet, secured some specimens of ore and looked things over generally. They then went to Denver and ascended Lookout Mountain. On the way down at 7:30 when 13 miles from Denver they saw the city lights turned on and it looked as if a flock of fire flies had been turned loose.

Some Colorado Drives.
One of the finest drives in Colorado is the skyline drive where the roads are excellent. By train they went to Silver Plume and by gasoline propelled cars containing but a small number of passengers each they went to the top of Mt. McClellan, over 14,000 feet high, lacking but a trifle of the altitude of Pike's Peak. On this trip they saw the famous Georgetown loop where they can see five bridges and four different levels of track.

At Denver they met Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hackett who are visiting their daughter and Mr. Hackett went with them to Colorado Springs for a day. There they visited the garden of the gods, cave of the winds and other places. More and more they are coming to hold up and extort from tourists out there. It is now fifty cents to visit seven falls, 25 cents to see balanced rock; a dollar to enter cave of the winds and so on. At Manitou they met Mrs. Wm. Batz, Mrs. C. N. Priest and daughter, Eulah.

A millionaire named Penrose at a cost of over $500,000, has recently completed an automobile road to the top of Pike's Peak and each passenger must pay $2.00. The road is well made, tacking considerable toward the top so as to make the grade. The car was driven by Edward Tomlinson; the car number is always taken and a certificate given the driver making him a life member of Pike's Peak Highway Club. Cars were there from San Francisco, New York, Texas and all over the land. The Tomlinson car was the 350th one to ascend the peak this year.

Inside the garden of the gods they found Miss Bessie Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mason, formerly of this city, in charge of an art craft establishment. At Denver they met Dr. Willard and John Young, son of Mrs. J. W. Young on West State street. John is with the Gano Downans establishment dealing in shoes and clothing and has been there 16 years and holds an important position. He showed the tourists many courtesies.

Returning they followed the ocean to ocean trail to Colby, Kansas and there left it. In western Kansas grasshoppers are taking the corn crop out wheat was a good crop averaging about 18 bushels to the acre and bringing now $1.34 a bushel. Some of the land there is worth but $10 to $15 an acre. At Afton, Kansas, they visited Dr. Young's roommate at college, Dr. Melvory, who was very courteous to them. They crossed the Missouri river at St. Joe soon after the cloud-burst which left seven inches of rain. They crossed the Mississippi at Hannibal and found good roads after leaving Oxville. Across Missouri they didn't encounter 25 miles of good roads and at one place for 300 yards they went thru water two feet deep. Their car and outfit weighed 2500 lbs. At Brookfield, Mo., they met a number who spoke in high praise of the Jeffries band. They carried a Jacksonville pennant and a banner going which read, Jacksonville to Cheyenne, Denver, Colorado Springs, and Pike's Peak and returning they reversed it. Their outfit attracted considerable attention and well advertised their home city.

WHO'LL BE A BOOSTER?

Right safe were the wheels of the automobiles.
Right safe at home in the dry;
While the farmer came with his dear old horse,
So patient and willing to try.

'Twas the hardest rub, mud up to the hub,
Yet the good horse pulled right through,
His spattered sides were a sight to behold,
I pitied him, didn't you?

But the people would go to the circus show,
And the roads were awful they say.

So I'm sure the horse would boost if he could,
He'd boost for the Burlington Way.

—S. A. Hughes.
